

Sing a New Song

$\text{♩} = 120$
C

F Dm G C

We are walking in the

9 Am F[△]

deep, deep dark, stag-ger sud-den-ly be-neath this weight Has the fu-ture e-ver seemed so stark? Have you e-ver felt your heart so ache? But the light

13 Dm G

17 F Am

that flows in-to these sha-dowlands only the passion of God could create He will

21 G F

lift off your bur-den to let you stand; this is the peace for which we wait

25 C F

Wake up, wake up, and sing a new song; Glory to God, here comes the True Dawn

29 Dm G C

Wake up, wake up, and sing a new song We are sleeping in the night of fear, in the dol-drums of a chained rou - tine How we long for an-y -

34 Am F[△]

38 Dm G F

where but here, stuck inside a spirit-less ma - chine But the clean, cool water of free-

2

43 F Am G

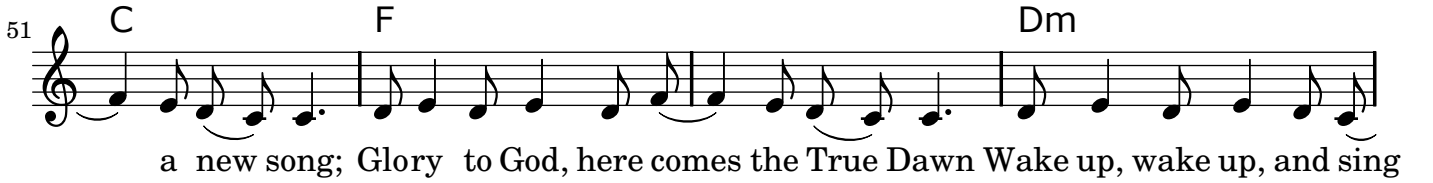

- dom is an a-wakening, cleansing stream And if you follow where the flowing is lead-

47 G F C

- ing, you will be led to the Love Su-preme Wake up, wake up, and sing

51 C F Dm

a new song; Glory to God, here comes the True Dawn Wake up, wake up, and sing

55 G C F G

a new song This is a song of God's perfect sal-vation, a song we

60 Am F Dm C/E

hear and sing day after day: If you give Him glory, as His song repeats You will

64 F G/D Dm

join His sto-ry, He will give you peace With the ech-oes of shep-herds, and the

67 C/E F G/D

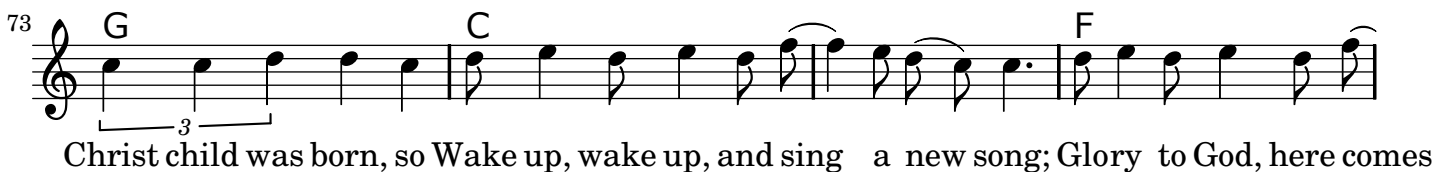

an-gels' shouts Hear the joy of all Hea-ven fly-ing from your mouth For the song that you claim at the first every morn Blossoms new, yet the same as when the

70 F G F

73 G C F

Christ child was born, so Wake up, wake up, and sing a new song; Glory to God, here comes

77 F Dm G C

the True Dawn Wake up, wake up, and sing a new song

81 C

Wake up, wake up, and sing a new song; Glo-ry to God, here comes F Dm G Dm

85 F

the True Dawn Wake up, wake up, and sing Wake up, wake up, and sing
Dm G Dm

89 G

Wake up, wake up, and sing a new song
Dm G C